Staff Attorney

About the Organization

La Raza Centro Legal, San Francisco is a non-profit community legal aid that provides free legal representation to immigrants and low-income community members in San Francisco and San Mateo counties. We represent clients in three legal departments: Immigration law, Elder and Disability Law/Civil Litigation, and Workers’ Rights.

La Raza Centro Legal SF was founded in 1973, and since that time has partnered with the community so that justice may prevail. Our mission is to be the most trusted provider in legal services. A San Francisco Legacy Business and award-winning neighborhood law office, each year, La Raza Centro Legal SF serves over 4,000 individuals, and is one of the leading civil rights legal aid organizations in the Bay Area. We pride ourselves on our collaborative, professional and inclusive culture. Our office values maintaining a sustainable work-week schedule, and our attorneys and legal support staff are proud to be members of SEIU Local 1021.
