Workers’ Rights Program Staff Attorney

Position: Workers' Rights Staff Attorney
Reports to: Workers' Rights Legal Director
Bargaining Unit: Yes
FLSA: Exempt
Type: Full Time

Job Description
The primary objective of the Workers’ Rights Program Staff Attorney is to collaborate with the day-to-day operations of the legal services for the agency’s Workers Rights Program (WRP or the Program) as well as with the outreach and education activities of the Program.

The Workers’ Rights Program Staff Attorney will collaborate with the Program to assure that low-wage and immigrant workers in San Francisco are respected and treated fairly in the workplace. The position will assist with reporting requirements as well as take part in fundraising of the agency, especially with respect to the WRP.

Position Summary and Responsibilities
The WRP at La Raza Centro Legal provides comprehensive legal services to low-wage and immigrant workers in San Francisco facing wage theft, discrimination, retaliation, and other violations of workplace rights.

Primary responsibilities will include:

Legal Services
- Provide direct legal services to low-wage and immigrant workers through a mix of individual consultations, advice, and legal representation in wage-and-hour, retaliation, discrimination, and other claims.
- Represent workers in administrative proceedings, and state and federal court, as well as direct settlements negotiations or mediations with employers.
- Manage an individual caseload and maintain regular office hours.
- Collaborate, develop, and strengthen relationships with other legal aids, worker centers, and community partners to provide legal education, outreach, and direct legal services.
- Collaborate with the Legal Director to administer and manage grants, projects, and programs within the practice.
Outreach and Education
- Prepare and conduct “Know Your Rights” trainings and presentations required by the Program’s grants.
- Conduct general community presentations around workers’ rights when appropriate.
- Facilitate the growth of workers’ rights outreach.
- Assist in determining appropriate case stories to be used for reports, advocacy materials, and public education.

Facilitates the implementation of program systems
- Collaborate with the Legal Director and the Program’s Legal Assistant to collect, monitor, track, analyze, and report data and case deliverables for grants, projects, and programs within the practice.
- Aid with the operation of case management systems.
- Collaborate with the operation of the Program donation system.
- Update existing intake forms, as necessary.
- Assist with the availability of needed library, software, or other training materials.

Coalition Work
- Meet regularly with other legal aid agencies, worker centers, and other community partners, which includes attending meetings with the Workers’ Rights Community Collaborative (WRCC), and the Coalition of Low-wage and Immigrant Worker Advocates (CLIWA), among others, as needed.
- Collaborate with other agencies in developing approaches to media, potential funders, and the community regarding important employment issues.
- Work in partnership with other employment law agencies to develop resources and outreach materials, and work to continually improve community advocacy for workers’ rights.
- Engage in policy advocacy with legal aid agencies, worker centers, and other community partners.

Facilitate the media visibility of the Program’s work
- Serve as point person for calls and visits to the agency regarding workers’ rights issues.
- Establish media contacts with local media, and others, as necessary.

Assist with agency reporting, budgeting, and fundraising for the Program.
- Support the program’s reporting, budgeting, and fundraising efforts, which includes the timely preparation and submission of grant applications and grant reports.
- Assist Legal Director, Executive Director, and any Development Director to identify fundraising opportunities.
- Attend meetings with funders and grantors who show interest in funding the Program and agency work.
- Ensure that Program follows through with commitments made to grantors and funders.

Facilitate mentorship, skills-building, training, organizing opportunities and morale-building opportunities for program staff members
• Train, mentor, supervise, and support ongoing development of a diverse staff of advocates, fellows, clerks, and interns.

Agency-wide Responsibilities
- Attend regularly scheduled staff meetings.
- Attend agency-wide staff retreat.
- Attend one board meeting.
- Participate in committees as needed.
- Represent the agency to the community at community meetings, public events, and other forums.
